About Alexander

Meet TV/Radio's Alexander Rodriguez, the love child of Joan Rivers, Johnny Carson and Judy Garland. A true renaissance man, he wouldn't be caught dead without his signature suit, loud tie, matching pocket square, and a cocktail (or two in hand).

Alexander's sense of humor shines through in his cabaret shows (when he can remember the words), daily life, and his nationally syndicated radio show "On The Rocks with Alexander: Where Celebrities & Cocktails Mix" on iHeartRadio, Pandora, and Spotify. He chats with big-name guests from classic to current Hollywood, reality TV, pop culture and music, meshing celebs from all walks of life to draw together a truly diverse listener base regardless of age, orientation or gender. Viewers never know who they are going to find rubbing elbows on this non-stop laugh fest that talks about everything entertainment; after a few drinks you see celebs in a different light, answering questions not usually asked.

Alexander is also the lead writer for Metrosource (National) Magazine and GED Magazine, as well as a contributor for Instinct Magazine where you can find his movie reviews, movie news, celeb interviews and over-all take on Hollywood...of course in his signature style. He serves as host for Metrosource's official podcast hosts Drag Race Hangover podcast, your tipsy recap of all things RuPaul's Drag Race.

He has won numerous singing awards and performed at Segerstrom Center for the Arts with the Pacific Symphony Orchestra. He's played Charlie Brown at the Roxy in Hollywood to critical acclaim, performed at the Green Hills Memorial Park for over 5,000 guests for the 4th of July Celebration, hosted National MS Society's "Sky's the Limit" event, and performed at Upright Citizen's Brigade's Inner Sanctum, ESpot, Don't Tell Mama in LA and NY, Rage Nightclub, and Rockwell Table & Stage. Alexander has also served as MC for Palm Springs Pride, Santa Monica Pride, Out at the Fair New Mexico State Fair, Downtown LA Proud Out, Out at the Fair San Diego, Cathedral City Pride, Laguna Beach Pride, Long Beach Pride Overboard, and Vanderpump World Dog Day. Alexander was most recently listed as runner up for LA Blade's Best of LA as TV Personality and served as Media Grand Marshal for Palm Springs Pride 2019.

Alexander also served as co-host for LATV's Glitterbomb – the first ever national LATINX LGBT television programming.

Broadcast live on iHeartRadio, Pandora and a series of other national platforms, On The Rocks is a weekly talk show hosted and produced by on-air personality Alexander Rodriguez. A mix between Joan Rivers, Johnny Carson and Judy Garland, Alexander talks about entertainment, fashion, pop culture and hot topics while sipping cocktails with his celebrity guests from stage, screen, and beyond. The show is broadcast via camera as well as audio. Archived shows are featured on iHeartRadio, FacebookWatch, Roku, Stitcher, Spotify, TuneIn, Apple Podcasts, Pandora, YouTube, Google Play, Amazon Echo, Gay Binge TV, TrueFM, GED Magazine and Now Trending App. Academy Award Winners, Golden Globe Winners, Tony Award Winners, Emmy Award Winners and pop culture headliners – he's drank with them all.
